

KEEPER FOR THE DAY

Being a Keeper for the Day can include all, or some of the following

-  Free entry to the zoo for you and an observer
Please note that your observer will not be able to go behind the scenes with you; they must observe from the public viewing areas
-  Bath an Elephant between 9.30 and 10.30 am
Also includes footwork
-  Keepers morning break between 10.30 and 11.00 am
-  Bird Section between 11.00 and 12.00 pm
Feeding the Pelicans, Penguins & Otters
-  Large Mammal Section between 12.00 and 1.00pm
Meet the Tapirs, Zebras, Bongos and feed the Giraffes
-  Keepers lunch break between 1.00 and 2.00 pm
*A lunch voucher is provided for an adult meal and tea/coffee or soft drink
It is also permissible to go out of the zoo during this break, but remember to be back before your next session*
-  Sea lions between 2.00 and 3.00 pm
Watch the Sea lion show and then meet the Sea lions
-  Small Primates between 3.00 and 3.30 pm
*Report to the Small Primate House just before 3.00pm
Help the keepers prepare and feed the Lemurs and Squirrel Monkeys*

\ Note the zoo reserves the right to change the itinerary of the day if deemed necessary*

The gift voucher is valid for 18 months from the date of issue. It is advisable to ring well in advance of your preferred date as bookings are on a first come first served basis, the experience is only available to be taken on a Saturday, Sunday or Wednesday (excluding Bank holidays).

To book your day please ring reception on 01253 830801 or email reception@blackpoolzoo.org.uk; please quote the booking reference on your gift certificate.

You will need to wear wellies or boots and some old dark coloured clothes. It is also advisable to bring some light waterproofs with you.

We hope you will be pleased with this unique gift and look forward to arranging a date for your very own keeper experience.